BULLETIN BOARD

Fall Is Here

Autumn begins Monday, Sept. 23.

Random Act of Kindness

If you have a neighbor or friend with limited mobility, offer to pick up groceries for them the next time you make a trip to the store.

'Herbs' Is One

How many words can you come up with using the letters in "cheeseburger"?

Positive Thought

"There is no such thing as too late in life." —Morrie Schwartz

NOTES & NEWS

Apples of Our Eye

September signals the peak season for an autumn staple, apples. One of the most popular fruits, apples are grown commercially in over 30 states, with orchards harvesting 240 million bushels of them each year. Because the fruit bruises easily, all those apples must be picked by hand.

Stash the Savings

If you've been finding ways to trim your monthly expenses and take advantage of discounts, be sure to actually save the money you save! Stash the cash you would have spent in a savings account, or increase your contribution to a retirement or investment account.

Marvelous Mushrooms

These humble fungi are getting attention as the latest superfood. Mushrooms are packed with several key nutrients and antioxidants that may play a role in helping ward off disease. For a flavorful health boost, add mushrooms to salads, sandwiches and pizza.

HIGHLIGHTS

A Hum in the Air

Each September, the coastal Texas towns of Rockport and Fulton roll out the welcome mat. Their guests are thousands of migrating ruby-throated hummingbirds that stop for a feeding frenzy before a long journey across the Gulf of Mexico to their winter homes. The area's annual HummerBird Celebration draws attention to these and other migrating birds.

Check Your Specs

If you wear glasses and have frequent headaches, a visit to the eye doctor may be in order. An incorrect lens prescription can strain your eyes, resulting in headaches.

Custom Ice Packs

With a few new kitchen sponges, you can make ice packs just the right size for a lunchbox. Wet the sponge, give it a squeeze, then put it in a zip-close plastic bag and freeze. When it's time to eat lunch, you can use the thawed sponge to wipe a table or your hands if needed.

Reduce, Reuse, Recycle

Reduce the use of plastic and Styrofoam by bringing your own reusable to-go containers when you dine out. Designate a divided food storage bowl for each person, and when you go to a restaurant, put leftovers in the dishes to take home and eat later. Keep clean, empty containers in your car or near the door so you remember to use them.

Happiness Helper: Lend a Hand

"Start where you are. Use what you have. Do what you can." Those words from tennis legend Arthur Ashe have often been used to inspire people to share their time and talent. And when you help others, it can make you happy, too. No matter how you choose to make a difference, the engagement and sense of purpose that come from volunteering have been shown to benefit both happiness and health.

TRIVIA WHIZ

100 Years of the NFL

This year is the 100th season of the National Football League, which will mark the milestone with a series of events celebrating players, fans and communities.

The 2019 schedule features weekly games honoring NFL history, including the Green Bay Packers versus the Chicago Bears in the league's best-known rivalry; the Packers versus the Kansas City Chiefs in a rematch of Super Bowl I; and the Cincinnati Bengals versus the Cleveland Browns in the Battle of Ohio, the birthplace of the NFL.

Here are a few fun football facts to kick around in honor of the league's centennial:

- The NFL was founded in 1920 in Canton, Ohio, which is now home to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.
- In 1933, the league stopped using the Collegiate Rules Book and began to develop its own rules.
- As a rookie in 1934, Beattie Feathers became the first player to rush for 1,000 yards in a season.
- A 1939 matchup between the Philadelphia Eagles and the Brooklyn Dodgers was the first televised football game.
- NFL players were not required to wear helmets until 1943.
- The 1972 Miami Dolphins became the first NFL team to have a perfect season. Their 17-0 record culminated with a win at Super Bowl VII.
- Deion Sanders is the only athlete who has played in both a Super Bowl and a World Series.
- In 2015, the league hired its first full-time female referee, Sarah Thomas.

Reasons To Read

Getting lost in a good book is an enjoyment for many people. More than just entertainment, reading has been shown to be good for your health.

Boosts brain power. Much like exercise for the body, reading a book is a workout for the brain. Critical thinking is required to process the text, make connections between chapters and retain information. This forges new pathways in the brain, which can help protect against cognitive decline.

Increases empathy. When immersed in reading, especially a fiction story, we are likely to identify with the characters and their emotions. This may help us better relate to people in real life, strengthening bonds and prompting positive interactions.

Promotes sleep. A bedtime routine that includes reading with dimmed lights sends a signal to the body that it's time to wind down. Physical books work best at night since the glare from digital devices can disrupt sleep.

Reduces stress. A page-turner often transports the reader to another world, providing a break from worries. Participants in one study began to relax after just six minutes of reading.

More than just entertainment, reading has been shown to be good for your health

Cut Cooking Time With Rotisserie Chicken

During National Chicken Month in September, hatch a plan to put this versatile meat on your table. Start with a fully cooked rotisserie chicken from the grocery store, and you won't have to wing it when you want a quick, protein-packed meal.

Super soups. Check your cupboard for beans, broth and pasta and then whip up some white bean chicken chili, chicken noodle soup or chicken corn chowder.

Mexican. Tortillas, cheese, salsa and seasonings, along with shredded chicken, can be the basis for enchiladas, tacos, quesadillas, nachos, tostadas or taquitos. Serve sour cream and lettuce on the side.

Sauce it up. Add spicy buffalo sauce to your rotisserie chicken and make some buffalo chicken mac and cheese, buffalo chicken flatbread or buffalo chicken sliders. If you prefer barbecue sauce, you have the basis for barbecue chicken-stuffed baked potatoes, barbecue chicken pizza or pulled chicken sandwiches with slaw.

The lighter side. Chicken is great in cold sandwiches and salads. For a classic, add mayo, chopped celery and apple and serve on a croissant. Prepare a grain bowl by combining chicken with quinoa, avocado, onions, greens and tomatoes. Stuff a pita pocket with chicken, feta cheese, diced cucumbers and tomatoes, and then drizzle yogurt dressing on top.

WIT & WISDOM

Be Prepared With an Emergency Kit

National Preparedness Month in September is a time to ready yourself and those in your care for the unexpected. Take the first step by assembling a kit equipped with the supplies you might need in the event of a natural disaster or other emergency.

Keep your supplies in something that is easy to carry in case you must leave your home. Suggestions include a wheeled suitcase, a large plastic storage container or a couple of backpacks.

The Federal Emergency Management Agency recommends stocking these items in your emergency kit: nonperishable food, such as dried fruit, canned tuna or chicken, and peanut butter; bottled water; manual can opener; plates, utensils and wet wipes; first aid kit and toiletries; change of clothes; blanket; work gloves; multipurpose tool; matches; battery-powered radio, flashlight and extra batteries; whistle to signal for help; local map; cash; copies of insurance policies and identification; and paper and pencils.

Depending on your household members, you may need to include prescription medications, baby supplies, pet supplies, and books and games for children.

Make sure you have enough supplies for at least three days.

Gathering these items and packing your emergency kit can help you feel more secure. For more information on how to be prepared, visit www.Ready.gov.

Turkey and Potato Wrap

Ingredients:

- 3/4 pound russet potatoes, cut into 1/2-inch pieces
- 1 tablespoon water
- 1 tablespoon canola oil
- 3/4 pound ground turkey
- 1 large carrot, shredded
- 1/3 cup sliced green onions
- 1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
- 2/3 cup shredded cheddar cheese
- 1 teaspoon dried Italian seasoning
- Salt and pepper, to taste
- 4 large tortillas
- Sour cream (optional)

Directions:

Place potatoes in microwave-safe bowl; sprinkle with water. Cover, venting one corner. Microwave on high 5 to 8 minutes until potatoes are tender.

In large nonstick skillet over medium-high heat, heat oil. Add turkey; break up meat with spatula and cook 5 minutes. Mix in carrot; cook 2 minutes. Add potatoes and onions; stir and cook 2 minutes. Reduce heat to medium; mix in tomato sauce, cheese and Italian seasoning.

Cook, stirring occasionally, 4 to 5 minutes until mixture is hot and most sauce is absorbed. Season with salt and pepper, to taste. On work surface, lay out tortillas. Place 3/4 cup hot turkey mixture on each; fold and roll into burritos.

Cut in halves and place on serving plates. Top each with sour cream, if desired.
